INNOVATIVE TEACHING METHODS

Name: Mr.E.Purna Kanth Reddy

Designation: Assistant Professor

✓ Flexible and Personalized Learning Paths:

Provide flexibility in learning by tailoring content and pace according to individual student needs and learning styles.

✓ Collaborative Learning Approaches:

Implement group discussions, peer teaching, and teamwork activities to enhance collaborative learning, interpersonal skills, and mutual understanding among students.

✓ Review of Learning Objectives and Outcomes:

Clearly define and periodically review course objectives and learning outcomes to ensure alignment with student progress and curriculum goals.

✓ Quiz-Based Logical and Reasoning Activities:

Conduct regular quizzes and interactive assessments to strengthen logical reasoning, analytical ability, and problem-solving skills.

✓ Problem-Based Learning (PBL):

Present students with real-life problems or case scenarios that require critical thinking and application of pharmaceutical concepts to derive effective solutions.

✓ Logical and Reasoning Questioning Techniques:

Pose thought-provoking and reasoning-based questions during lectures to sustain attention, stimulate curiosity, and enhance conceptual understanding.

✓ Student Seminars and Presentations:

Encourage student-led seminars to promote communication, presentation, and leadership skills while reinforcing subject knowledge.

✓ Constructive Feedback and Continuous Improvement:

Collect student feedback regularly to identify strengths and areas for improvement in teaching methods, ensuring continuous pedagogical enhancement.
